Student Teachers May Obtain Books In Foster's Office

Attention Student Teachers! Do you feel yourself fully enough prepared and oriented to begin your position in the directed teaching program here on campus? Have you had sufficient preparation for your job as a student teacher? If you need authorized help in answering these questions, you will be interested to know that three handbooks for student teachers are now available for your usc.

Names of these handbooks are as follows: The Handbook for Secondary Student Teachers, prepared and edited by the faculty of Horace Mann High School: The Handbook for Directed Teaching, Elementary, prepared by the elementary supervisor and the staff of supervising teachers in Horace Mann Elementary School; and the Orientation Guide for Directed Teaching.

These handbooks have been designed specifically to aid in your understanding of the administrative and routine requirements which you, as a student teacher, must meet.

Copies of The Orientation Guide for Directed Teaching may be picked up in the Registrar's office.

Students to Vote on Constitution

After months of work, the proposed revised constitution of the Student Government Association is ready for the approval or disapproval of the student body.

Proposed revisions will be presented to the student body in an election next Wednesday, April 23. A majority of the total membership of the Student Government Association must vote for the proposals in order to pass them,

Student Senators gave their approval to the proposals at Section 3 is now Section 4. their last meeting, April 10. President J. W. Jones has also given his approval. The next step is the approval of the members of the Association.

Instrumental in the work of developing the new constitution has been Jerry Overton, student body president. Deanie Sherard, Student Senate secretary, and Dr. Jones have also spent many hours going over the revisions.

It should be emphasized that over one-half of the entire student body must vote in favor of the revision, not just over one-half of those voting.

Listed below in parallel columns are the present constitution and the proposed changes. Where no change has been proposed in the present constitution, the wording of the present constitution has not been listed.

Where changes are proposed, the present constitution has been quoted along side the amendment.
